PICCOLA'S FINE RACE.

Hawthorne's first two weeks' term of racing closed Saturday and an extraordinarily big half-holiday crowd of perhaps 7,000 people bid the handsome course good-bye until the Fourth of July. The first term at Hawthorne was a big success in every respect. The attendance has been greater than was ever before known at the track for a similar period and the racing has been clean and absolutely devoid of scandal,

Captain Rees, Harry Kuhl and Manager McAvoy deserve being highly complimented on their untiring work in trying to make the meeting what it was—a grand success,

Outside of the steeplechase there was no special attraction Saturday, but the sport was up to the standard and the big crowd seemed to thoroughly enjoy itself.

The steeplechase was a beauty. The winner was in doubt until the last fence was cleared. Jack Hayes and Chenier were always the contenders, and raced close together through the entire journey. First Jack Hayes would seem to be the destined winner and then Chenier's chances would appear to be the best. So the pair see-sawed all the way, and when the last fence was reached they were about on equal terms. Chenier out-jumped Jack a trifle, and the cry went up, "Chenier wins again." But when Hayes hit the flat he out-footed his opponent, and at the end was an easy winner. Del Coronado finished third and Colonel Weightman, with a broken stirrup, was fourth.

Strathbroeck, a recent arrival from Latonia, won the opening five furlong dash for two-year-olds, in a hard drive, and like a good youngster, from Nullah. Strathbroeck was last but two in the stretch but under a terrific drive he got up in time to get the verdict by a neck. His sprint through the stretch was an excellent example of a thoroughbred's gameness.

What er Lou, one of the best horses in the west at a mile or over, won his first race of the season on local tracks in the closing mile event. He was in with a fast lot, such as Galathee, Hugh Penny and Guess Me, and had to be a good, game horse to win in 1:39½. What er Lou was outrun in the early stages and down the backstretch it did not seem as though he had a possible chance to get to the leaders. Rutter, however, knew what he was doing and never sent the son of White—Alma Lamar along until the three-furlong post was reached. At this point Rutter made his move and by the time the field got straightened away for home he was in striking distance but was driving. On the other hand Galathee, who was now in front, was going well in hand and did not show any signs of weakening. About the eighth post though he began to get leg-weary and What er Lou keeping up his steady stride got to him and under the whip won handsomely.

After What er Lou was clear of Galathee he darted to the inside, and Beauchamp on the latter seeing that he was beaten thought there might be a chance to make a grandstand play and get away with it, and in a suggestive way yanked Galathee up. In doing so he interfered with Hugh Penny. Beauchamp, of course, made a claim of foul against What er Lou but at the same time Nutt, who rode Hugh Penny, lodged a claim against Galathee. The judges were not long in making their decision and rightly set Galathee back. This placed Hugh Penny second and Del Paso II. third.

Dave Waldo carried off the second race with his filly Maggie Davis. The fourth was an easy thing for Piccola, who is "hot rags" now, and Vie Lamont, backed from 6 to 1 down to 4 to 1, beat Idle Hour a whisker for the fifth.

Fremont Sloan claimed Deering for $1,100 out of the fourth race. This was a long way from being a bargain.

"Tully" Coulter was a visitor at the track. He came to have a settlement with J. E. Cushing. The pair had several two-year-olds, and as Coulter is not going to race in the west this year, he thought it best to dissolve partnership. Coulter returns east at once and out of the bunch of youngsters he and Cushing had will take three. Two are by Bramble and one by Strathmore. Tully says that "Gene" Leigh is having a very successful season in the east and is so "sassy" that one must take off his hat to talk to him.

It was rumored that C. H. Smith purchased Donald Bain recently for $6,500. It is only a rumor however.

LOCAL RACING.

Yesterday the Chicago Jockey Club's first meeting came to an end. In all essentials it was a meeting that the officials of the new organization can view with feelings of complete satisfaction. The patronage awarded the meeting was something to be proud of. The fields were as a rule large and so well balanced as to produce exciting contests with the element of uncertainty so prominent that odds-on favorites were few and far apart. The sport was of the cleanest description and the management of track details such as win the approval of Chicago's racegoing public.

Harlem will now be the scene of a fortnight of racing. The construction of the new grandstand has been pushed with the energy characteristic of the club in all of its operations, and will be found ready to shelter the thousands who will tax its capacity in the course of the two weeks to come. Some minor features may not be finished but if such is found to be the case only a few more days will be required to complete the new structure in all particulars. It is a great improvement over what patrons of the track had to put up with during the last Harlem meeting and there is substantial ground for believing the racing will be greatly improved also. There must be in Chicago now at least double the number of thoroughbreds that were available then and among the more recent arrivals are horses that can run fast enough and far enough to entertain and please any devotee of racing. The close of racing at Latonia will no doubt serve to further augment the number of horses at the local tracks and insure racing of the most satisfactory character through the summer months.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Judge L. P. Tarleton will leave for Fort Erie on July 1 where he will be presiding judge, also filling the same position on the Canadian Circuit tracks. Judge Charles Price will leave for French Lick Springs immediately after the close of Latonia, and after a short rest will go to St. Louis.—Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune.

Bannon & Feeley, Joliet, Ill.—Van Buren was a brown. He won two races at Garfield Park Tuesday, August 11, 1891. The first was at 7-8 mile, the second, 1 1-16 miles.

J. E. Daly, Detroit, Mich.—Place odds on George Krats, 2 to 5.

The latter is becoming a fair jumper. Cock Robin was second and appeared to have the place safe when he fell over the last jump. Sister Stella had none of her usual speed.

Winner—B. c, by Strathmore—Beth Broeck.

Post 7 minutes. Start good. It was very close between the first four. All were driving to the limit. Strathbroeck won like a good colt. He came from behind in the stretch with a tremendous rush and displayed great gameness. Beauchamp rode him skillfully. Nullah is not game. She seemed to have the race safely in hand a sixteenth out but weakened badly when pinched. She is very fast but cannot go over four and one half furlongs. Talma outstayed Inlook. The latter is fast and was used much early trying to outrace Nullah. Hood's Brigade, considering his heavy impost, ran a good race. He was none too well ridden. Beidenweg is a big overgrown youngster and hardly knew what to do.

Scratched—The Unknown, 107; 12880 Aileen Wilson, 104.

Winner—B. f, by Sayre—Lizzie C.

Off at the first break to a perfect start. Won driving and staggering; second, third and fourth were doing their best. Maggie Davis had the most speed and barely lasted long enough. Heroics was closing very fast and would have won in a few more strides. Bad racing luck cost him the race. Cordial is a good maiden. Mark her for a maiden race. Brown Dick looked dangerous at the head of the stretch, but could not stand the pressure at the end. Amyntas may have been short. At any rate she quit badly when the pinch came. Pat Cleburne was in a pocket all the way. Kamsin seems to be off.

Winner—Br. g, by Barnes—Stella Hayes.

Off at first break to a good start. Won cleverly after a very hard drive; second eased at the end. It was an interesting race to look at. All the horses had been properly schooled and no mistakes with the exception of Gypceiver running out, were made. Chenier was the best fencer of the lot, but Jack Hayes could outrun him on the flat. The latter was best ridden and came away easily at the end. Chenier was stopping badly. Del Coronado did fairly well. Colonel Weightman was not ready. One of Doane's stirrup leathers broke and he could not help the [illegible] in the last half. The others will hardly do as jumpers.

Winner—Ch. f, by Fonso—Peony.

Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily; second, third and fourth were driving to the limit. Piccola ran a high class race. She was under a stout pull to the stretch turn and then went to the front like a flash. The filly could have run much faster if pressed. King Bermuda, slow to begin, finished with a rush. This was the same kind of a race the gelding ran when McNickle rode him last. Banquo II. and Prince Blazes both stood long drives. Deering quit when the pinch came. He was carried too fast by Robert Bonner the first mile. The early fast pace stopped both of them.

Winner—Ch. f, by Ben Strome—Briar.

Post 10 minutes. Start good. The first three were driving to the limit. Vie Lamont won a lucky race. She was away flying and always had clear sailing. The filly was tiring fast at the end and barely lasted long enough. Idle Hour ran a good race and would have won in a few more strides. Miss Ross, on the inside, finished very strong. She had a rough journey. Charmante was right there all the way. Had Colonel Eades been able to get through in the stretch he would have won. He ran the best race of the lot. Racivan got off in a pocket and could never get out of it. Throw his race out. Al Lone was jumped on and badly cut.

Scratched—12934 Anna Held, 106.

Overweights—Charmante, 1 pound.

Winner—B. h, by White—Alma Lamar.

Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly at the end after a hard early drive; second, third and fourth were under keen pressure. What er Lou was the best and showed it. He was slow to begin, but finished fast. He is good now and can probably beat anything at either track at a mile or over. Galathee ran a greatly improved race. He had plenty of speed and hung on gamely at the end. This was a great improvement over his two previous races here. The colt crowded Hugh Penny in the last fifty yards, causing the latter to pull up, consequently the disqualification. Hugh Penny stopped, but came again in the stretch. Del Paso II. ran a corking good race for him. Guess Me quit badly. She pulled up lame.

Winner—B. f, by St. Florian or Mars—La Misere.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Malaise liked the sloppy track and opened up a gap that the others could not close. Spirituelle stopped like some of her stable companions have been doing lately.

Malaise, place, 3 to 1; show, out. The Bondman, place, 9 to 10; show, out. Eberhart, show, out. Spirituelle, show, out.
